

Rami Khouri speaks on the future of US-Arab relations

Continuing its series of distinguished lectures, Center for International and Regional Studies at Georgetown University School of Foreign Service hosted a lecture by Rami Khouri, editor of the Lebanese newspaper, The Daily Star and director of the Issam Fares Institute for Public Policy and International Affairs at the American University of Beirut.

The lecture, titled “America, the Middle East and the Gulf: An Arab View of Challenges Facing the Next US Administration” drew the attention of an audience that has been following the presidential elections in the US and anticipating changes with the new administration.

The next CIRS event will be a dialogue with Dr Renee Richer, on Monday 15 September.
